Pre-foreclosure Calls

Hi, ____! This is _____. How are you doing today?

Well the reason that I am reaching out is because I received your name from a list that leads me to believe that you need to sell your property.

(usually, they ask what list)

I did notice that your property is in a pre-foreclosure status and I specialize in helping people just like you avoid foreclosure by purchasing their home prior to them losing it back to the bank.

And, in a lot of cases we are actually able to buy the property as well as put some money into your pocket so that you are able to move on with your life, in a better position.

So, can I come out there and meet with you, take a look at the property and see how I could best work with you on this?
