

Cold Calling – Free List Outreach for High-Impact Conversations

📌 Introduction to Cold Calling

This lesson focuses on one of the most effective, low-cost ways to generate off-market real estate leads—cold calling from free marketing lists. It's a direct strategy that lets you reach owners others are ignoring, using nothing but effort, consistency, and free tools.

You'll learn how to find leads without paying for expensive data, what to say to start a conversation, and how to avoid common mistakes that hurt your credibility. By the end, you'll be ready to take action with a focused 7-day challenge.

✅ What to Expect and How It Works

This lesson covers:

- What cold calling from free lists really means
 - How to build and organize your lead list
 - Where to find quality leads without spending money
 - How to speak with owners in a natural, high-trust way
 - What tools and scripts increase success
 - A 7-day action plan to help you build consistency and momentum

📌 What Is Cold Calling from Free Lists?

- This strategy involves calling property owners using phone numbers you find through free tools
- You introduce yourself, ask simple questions, and open a conversation about potentially selling
- You're not pitching—you're just reaching out, building connection, and gathering insight
- It's a method built on effort, not money—and it works

📝 Example: Many deals start not with a sale, but with one polite call and a follow-up message that builds trust over time.

📌 Free Lead Source Examples

- Expired rental listings on Craigslist or Facebook Marketplace
- Driving for Dollars – call the owners of visibly distressed or For Rent properties
- Older homes or high-turnover rental neighborhoods
- Absentee owners using public tax records
- Tools like Deal Driven, Whitepages, or TruePeopleSearch to gather phone numbers

📌 Why This Strategy Works

- You're targeting specific properties aligned with your goals
- You hear directly from owners—real conversations, not secondhand info
- This approach costs little, but yields high returns when done consistently
- Most owners haven't been contacted and are open to real dialogue

📌 Build Your List Like a Pro

- Use tools like Whitepages, Spokeo, and TruePeopleSearch
- Track your leads using a Google Sheet or CRM (name, address, phone, lead source, last contact)
- Prioritize absentee or out-of-state owners—they're often more open to selling
- Stay organized to maximize follow-up and reduce missed opportunities

📌 High-Trust Cold Call Script

Keep your intro simple and human:

“Hey [Name], my name is [Your Name]. I'm a local buyer here in [City]. I came across your property at [Address] and just wanted to see if you'd be open to a quick conversation—now or even sometime down the road.”

- This script is casual, respectful, and effective
 - Once the door is open, listen to their situation and respond thoughtfully

📌 Multi-Touch Outreach Strategy

- Start with a friendly text message—introduce yourself and your reason for reaching out
 - Follow up with a call later that day or the next
 - Leave a voicemail if they don't answer—repeat your message
 - This sequence builds recognition and separates you from spam callers

📌 What to Avoid

- Don't start calling without a clear buy box or exit strategy
- Avoid robotic scripts—sound natural and genuine
- Don't make promises you can't keep, like instant offers or guaranteed sales
- Never neglect follow-up—most deals come after multiple touches
- Don't pretend to know everything—if you're unsure, say you'll follow up with your team

📞 Professional, honest conversations build the trust that leads to deals.
